CIRCUIT COURT BEGINS THE JUNE TERM.

Session of Four Weeks With Five Hundred Cases
On Docket.

TWO MURDER TRIALS.

Grand Jury Empaneled Yesterday and Ready for Business.

The June term of Christian circuit court convened yesterday for a four weeks' session. The docket is a heavy one, there being about 500 cases, many of them of considerable importance. There are a large number of divorce suits, the most of them brought by colored people.

There are seventeen persons confined in the county jail, but only two of them are awaiting trial. Of the other fifteen, three are under penitentiary sentences, but have appealed their cases. They are Frank Meriwether, Charles Finch and Dave Cunningham, all colored. Finch and Meriwether were convicted of the February term for complicity in the Pembroke murder and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Several parties are under bond to answer any indictment that might be found against them.

There are a number of divorce suits to be tried at this term. The most of them were brought by colored people.

The case of Jim Holloway, charged with the murder of Andrew Bradshaw, another negro, at a dance near Old Bellevue about 27 years ago, is set for to-morrow. Holloway was arrested in Paducah about two months ago, it will be remembered, and brought here to answer the charge.

The case of "Gip" Griffin, charged with the murder of Henry Warner, near Fruit Hill, is set for Thursday.

The petit juries will be made up to-day. The grand jury for this term was made up yesterday, as follows:

M. B. King, foreman.
W. E. Adcock. Henry Flowers,
Jno. W. Terrell, T. E. Booker,
P. F. Rogers, A. C. Joiner,

W. R. Jordan, R. E. Fields,
Jas. W. Kelly.

THE ATHENAEUM.

Dangerous Fall.

Robert Baker, a colored boy, while chasing a monkey Friday evening, fell and was pretty badly injured. The monkey escaped from one of the carnival shows and climbed upon a house top on Ninth street. A ladder was placed on the American Express Co. building and Mr. M. L. Elb's residence and Baker attempted to cross, but the ladder slipped and he fell to the ground. He suffered a sprain of his shoulder and ankle and a bad scalp wound. He will recover.

Cleaning Up.

The merchants are busy cleaning their show windows and fronts and the city has made a clean sweep of the debris left on the street by the carnival.

BRIGHT FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD

And a Sumptuous Dinner
For the Living
Veterans.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

Fifty Veterans In Gray Pay
Tribute to the Memory of Their Comrades.

The graves of the Confederate soldiers buried in Hopewell Cemetery were decorated with flowers Saturday, after an all day meeting of Veterans and their families had been enjoyed at Moayon's Hall. A sumptuous dinner was furnished by Ned Merriwether Camp, U. C. V. and the Christian County Chapter, U. D. C.

Rev. J. L. Wyatt asked the blessing and the veterans and others were seated at long tables in the hall and the Daughters served the dinner—first to the old soldiers and then to their members. The spread was so bountiful that many invited guests were added to the large company, and many baskets were carried back untouched.

In the afternoon the soldiers met at the Cemetery—there was no parade as the streets were so crowded with people—and brief and impressive ceremonies were held.

Rev. J. L. Wyatt offered prayer and Rev. J. E. Fogarte delivered an eloquent address, eulogizing the patriotism and nobility of character and purity of purpose of the brave men who gave their lives for the Lost Cause.

Half a hundred of the old soldiers were grouped about the beautiful monument and listened with tear-dimmed eyes to the praises of their dead comrades.

At the conclusion of Dr. Fogarte's address, Mrs. L. M. Blakemore, honorary president of the U. D. C., on behalf of the Chapter, conferred crosses of honor upon five old soldiers, viz: Maj. J. O. Ferrell, Edmund Harrison, J. C. Weddington, J. B.

Berry and W. H. Cox. The two first named were ill and not present. Mrs. Blakemore's address was beautiful in language, appropriate in sentiment and eloquent in its praise of the virtues of the heroes of '61. She spoke feelingly of the fact that she had while president of the chapter conferred crosses of honor upon 45 veterans and these increased that number to 50. She was one of the organizers of the local chapter and her long and unselfish devotion to the work of love in which the Daughters of the Confederacy are engaged, has given her a warm place in the heart of every veteran. After depositing their floral offerings on the mound covering the bodies of 101 soldiers, the Veterans and Daughters formed groups on either side of the shaft and a photographer made a picture of the scene.

FELIX FELTNER

Fined and Imprisoned for Contempt of Court.

Winchester, Ky., June 2.—Felix Feltner, of Leslie county, the first of the men tried on contempt charges, growing out of the alleged spiriting away of witnesses in the Marcum-Hargis damage suit last January, was sentenced to two years hard labor in the county jail and assessed a fine of $3,000 by the jury of the circuit court this morning.

Unless Feltner is pardoned by the governor he will have to pay the fine and serve the sentence, as the verdict in a contempt case is rarely
